

Privacy Policy

i-Mob Pay is committed to maintaining the privacy of all visitors and customers. Please read the following privacy policy to understand how we use and protect the information that you provide to us. By registering or placing an order on our website, you consent to the collection, use and transfer of your information under the terms of this policy.

Unless required to do so by law, we will never pass on any of your details to any third party under any circumstance except for payment verification, anti-fraud and anti-identity theft. The information you provide when purchasing from us is used solely to validate your payment and fulfill your order. When you purchase online by credit or debit card you will be re-directed via a secure payment gateway. When registering with us you may opt to receive emails from us detailing service alerts, service updates, rate changes, account administration changes, future promotions and special offers. If you do not wish to allow us to use your information, you may opt out by letting us know, or from within your administration area in your online account. However, if you do not wish to allow us to contact you, you will not be notified of any important changes in services, including system faults, rate changes and account administration changes. Note that if you have chosen your order to be delivered via courier service we may be required to provide them with a contact phone number to assist them in the event that they encounter a difficulty with delivery. If this is the case we will always seek your consent in advance before providing them with such details. To meet our statutory accounting and revenue legal obligations we will retain on record your contact details and order history. Note that in the event of us ever having to contact you by phone, we will only discuss your order with yourself without exception. We use the information we collect on the site to make shopping at www.imobpay.eu possible and to enhance your overall shopping experience. We will never sell, trade or rent your personal information to another party.

Any changes to our privacy policy in the future will be posted to the site and, where appropriate, through e-mail notification.
